

The Story of Okay

The story of Okay consists of four main characters God, Jesus, Phyllis and Jessica. One day God spoke to Phyllis Moore and said I will give you a daughter but I require one thing from you. Phyllis knowing God on a personal level said okay without hesitation. Phyllis asked God what is it you want and God said to Phyllis "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old he will not depart from it". God said in the event you forget, read Proverbs 22:6 as a reminder and Phyllis said okay.

As the years passed God spoke to Jessica and said, child obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. Honor your father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise and Jessica said okay.

More years passed and God looked around his beautiful garden of flowers and said; as magnificent as my garden is, something is missing. God then said I know exactly what is missing and He said I need a yellow rose. God said it cannot be just any yellow rose. It must be a giving bloom, this rose must have a smile that lights up a room and it must be a selfless rose that is willing to shine all of the time. God pondered for a moment and looked down on the earth and said I know the perfect yellow rose that I must pick to plant in my garden. God then looked down saw Jessica and said I need you and Jessica said okay.

God then said to Jessica don't be afraid for I am with you even until the end and Jessica said okay. As shots rang though out the room God said to Jessica "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13) and Jessica said okay. My precious, sweet, unselfish Jessica stepped in front of her friend and said okay. God then said to Jessica stay here with me in my garden and I will give you rest and Jessica again, said okay.

God spoke to Phyllis as loving as he could to let her know that Jessica is in her permanent home. God said to Phyllis I know you will weep but don't weep as those who have no hope and Phyllis said okay. Jesus then softly spoke to Phyllis and said I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me though he were dead, yet shall he live; and who so ever liveth and believeth in me shall never die". Believeth thou this and Phyllis tearfully said okay.

The story of Okay ended with tears of sadness because all of us who love Jessica in the flesh will miss her smile, beautiful voice of song and her unselfishness. But our spiritual souls know that Jessica is in a better place and we will see her again in the days of the Lord.
